GET REAL WITH LIFEXCHANGE AT DR BLOK

Spoudazo Enterprises presented the GET REAL programme in collaboration with LifeXchange on the 7th of April 2016. One session was with the grade 11 learners at Dr Blok, one with UFS mentors and the last one with the teachers and parents of the grade 11 learners at Dr Blok.

All the participants were very excited about this opportunity. The information shared was truly life-changing. However, this was the introduction to real transformation that can take place by means of a simple and scientifically proven one-on-one mentorship process. Companies can get involved to sponsor such mentorship programme at a cost of R1250 per month per learner for a period of 24 months. By getting involved in this programme, companies gain with regards to B-BBBE by means of Skills Development, Preferential Procurement and SED points.

TRUE FACTS FROM THE FOOD SECURITY PROJECT IN MANGAUNG TOWNSHIPS

The vegetable tunnel project sponsored by Raubex currently has 62 tunnels at the homes of individual families. Seedlings for the winter season have been planted during this term and harvests are ready for family usage and sales! The spinach crops are looking more than promising.

Did you know?

The average number of spinach seedlings in each tunnel is 120. Each seedling can produce 8 bunches of spinach per season. The real effect: 120 seedlings x 8 bunches x R6/bunch = R5760!

VODACOM CHANGE THE WORLD AT BEUDENE DAYCARE FOR DISABLED

The 2015/2016 Vodacom Change the World programme where Cindy van Zyl helped changing the world of learners with Autism at Beudene Day Care for disabled is coming to an end.

The learners with Autism at Beudene grew from 6 to 20! Spoudazo has entered to qualify for the 2016/2017 Vodacom Change the world programme and is holding thumbs to be chosen for the second phase. So far, we have been shortlisted from 5029 entries!

HEAVEN IS FOR REAL AT BEUDENE DAYCARE FOR DISABLED

Beudene Daycare for disabled was showered with blessings during this

This being the monetary value of the spinach either utilized by the family or/and sales of the crops during a season. We have planted 9056 spinach seedlings and 6695 beetroot seedlings with the vegetable tunnel project this term! The total value of the spinach harvests for this community will add up to R434 688!

Another major seller from veggie tunnels:

The last of the peppers for the summer season were sold. During April, one of the tunnel owners earned in excess of R1500 from the selling of her succulent green and red peppers to Pick 'n Pay and local restaurants.

ENTERPRISE DEVELOPMENT WITH MATSHIDISO TLALI

Thanks to GHT Consulting, Matshidiso Tlali has completed her sewing classes. She has been attending sewing classes at Naude Designers for a period of 8 months. She completed her exams and will be receiving her certificate. We have also finalized a website and Facebook page for her business, namely Tlali's Fresh Produce and African Dress Creations. She has been equipped with a sewing machine, an over looker, accessories, material, patterns, training and her home was enlarged to provide for additional space where she can operate from.

Tlali's Fresh Produce and African Dresses will offer the following services:

- Sales of fresh produce from her Vegetable Tunnel
- Sewing: Seshweshwe Dresses, daily wear, tablecloths, serviettes, duvet covers, and pillow cases. She will also be doing clothing alterations.

term. Thanks to Vodacom and Raising Flags, we managed to complete a beautiful marketing dvd of Beudene. Watch it by clicking here.

We are so thankful for every individual and company who have opened their hearts to help support Beudene's service to the community. Not only has Beudene been blessed this term with gas heaters, benches, a freezer, funds, volunteers, but Domain Construction also built a beautiful road from the gate to the classroom.

A special word of thanks to: Budget Soap, Marius van den Burg of Domain Construction, Mimosa Mall, Miss Free State SA, Bloemcare, Bremer Investments, Dirk de Beer, Francois Jacobs & Carlo van der Walt for their amazing acts of love and support.
